AT A GLANCE

ABOUT

Established in 2010 by the Justice Management Institute (JMI), the National Network of Criminal Justice Coordinating Councils (NNCJCC) champions the adoption of high-performing Criminal Justice Coordinating Councils (CJCCs) in jurisdictions across the country. Our primary aim is to improve local justice systems and bolster public safety.

The NNCJCC consists of 40 members from 27 different states.

VISION

Criminal justice coordinating councils (CJCCs) that enhance justice and safety in every community.

MISSION

To empower CJCCs to drive positive change through knowledge sharing, advocacy, and innovation.
